At Crichan, parish of Kirkmaiden, on the 4th inst., Mr Hugh Wallace, farmer, in the 61st year of his age.

During his long residence in Kirkmaiden, Mr Wallace endeared himself to every one by his social hospitality and urbanity, and to the poor he was ever a generous friend. The character he universally bore, and the general regret for his loss, justify us in saying that he was one of the class of men whom we could heartily wish to see multiplying more and more.

We have to report this week the demise of a worthy couple at Garliestown, who will scarcely ever be forgotten there by the present generation. Than Mr Niven Agnew, who died on the night of the 17th, after a brief illness, and Mrs Agnew, who died suddenly on the 19th, few were more worthy or possessed of so much respect. For upwards of a quarter of a century they lived in the service of the Galloway family, and since upon their frugal earnings, kind and considerate to every one who required their aid.

At Elizabethtown, State of Kentucky, United States, on 15th August last, Mr John M'Ewen, late farmer of Mossyard, Anwoth.

At Balmaclellan Manse, on the 18th inst., after a severe and protracted illness, borne with much Christian patience, the Rev. Gavin Cullen, long minister of that Parish.

At Castle-Douglas, on the 22d inst., Mrs Robert M'Murray, after a very short illness.

At Shambelly, on the 19th inst., William Stewart, Esq., of Shambelly.

At Loreburn Street, Dumfries, on the 12th inst., James, aged 25 years, only son of Mr Andrew Anderson, draper, Dumfries.

At Shakspeare Street, Dumfries, on the 18th inst., aged 60 years, Daniel M'William, mason, much respected.

At Barnhill of Goldilea, on the 12th inst., of consumption, in the 26th year of her age, Mrs Charlotte Goldie Gass, wife of Mr Henry Topham.

At Swordwell, near Annan, Mr Thomas Rome, farmer there, at an advanced age.

At Murray Street, Annan, on the 12th inst., Robert Davidson, aged 65 years.

At No. 4, John Street, Toxteth Park, Liverpool, on the 10th curt., Janet Scott, wife of Mr John Grieve, late of Moffat, Dumfries-shire - much and deservedly regretted.

At Helensburgh, on the 15th inst., Joseph Dixon, Esq., advocate.

At St. James's Palace, London, on the 13th inst., Lady Burdett.

On the 13th inst., at her house, in Belgrave Square, London, the Countess Dowager of Clare.

On the 10th inst., Major-General Sir Hudson Lowe, K.C.B. and G.C. to whom was intrusted the custody of the Emperor Napoleon at St. Helena.

At London, on the 2d inst., Charles Stewart, Esq., of Ardsheal, in the county of Argyll, male representative of the Stewarts of Lorn, Appin and Ardsheal, aged 76.
